TAFTVILLE

Camp Fire Girls Meet With Miss Stella Verrington—British-American Fund Report.

Friday evening the A-O-W-K-Ya Camp Fire Girls met with Miss Stella Verrington at her home in the village. There was a good attendance and the usual business was transacted. After the business session a social hour was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

British-American War Bonnet Fund. The total amount collected up to April 6, is $1,935 and we have just sent a check to headquarters for one hundred dollars. This makes a total of one thousand dollars which has been sent since the fund was organized. This speaks well for the people of Taftville and yet there are many who could make this society a greater good by adding their bit to the cause. There was never a time when it was more needed. Our small sacrifice is nothing to be compared with what the boys are making at this time over in France.

This letter has been received from headquarters. Dear Mr. Adams: We are more than grateful to the Taftville branch for its magnificent donation and find it difficult to express to you our thanks for all that you have done. Your society has brought an immense amount of relief and comfort to many sufferers and I am sure that if you realized how greatly you have helped you would be more than content.

Sincerely yours,
 DOROTHY KING,
 Cor. Secretary.

EVENTS OF FIFTY YEARS AGO

State Election Resulted in Choice of Democratic Governor—H. H. Starkweather Delegate to National Union Republican Convention—Charles Johnson Made Treasurer of Second Congregational Church.

In Norwich fifty years ago the chief topic of discussion was the state election which resulted in a democratic governor being elected. The republicans of the city elected their representatives to the state legislature and duly celebrated the victory. The election of a representative in Lisbon resulted in a tie and the voters held another election on the following day.

Extracts from The Bulletin's files of '63 follow: April 6, 1863—The last grand gathering of the republicans was held Saturday evening in Bred hall and fully equalled the previous meetings of the campaign in numbers and enthusiasm. The people came out in their strength to do honor to the gallant Union generals who were announced to speak: Sickles and Pleasanton. By half past five in the afternoon people were assembling at the hall—eager to secure a good seat and long before the usual hour of opening the doors every available space was crowded; chairs and stools were brought in and men even held others in their laps. The arena between 1,500, 1,600 present and a fair per centage was ladies.

The police force under Captain Small appeared on the streets Saturday afternoon in full uniform and marched to the West Side where after forming in line they discharged their revolvers to put in new charges. The old ones having been in two years. On their return to the hall a lunch was spread for the officers.

A Democratic Victory. April 7, 1863—The state election resulted in a democratic victory and James E. English was elected governor by a good majority. The republicans, however, carried both branches of the legislature. In Norwich Joseph Seiden and William R. Potter defeated their democratic opponents for representatives and Supply T. Holbrook was elected judge of probate for the year ending March 31, 1864. Charles W. Scott was elected senator. There was quite a demonstration in the evening the democrats parading the streets and singing. A big bonfire was lighted on Franklin square and there were other unnecessary disturbances. The republicans also turned out and serenaded the representatives elected.

BROADWAY FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Held Last Session of Year and Heard Articles on Rhodesia and Reports of Branch Meeting.

Friday afternoon the Foreign Missionary society of Broadway Congregational church held a meeting in the church parlors to which the members of the Foreign Missionary society of the Second church were invited. It being the last meeting of the former society for the year the annual and monthly reports of the secretary and treasurer were read and approved, following the devotional services.

The subject for the afternoon was Rhodesia and articles on missions there were read by Mrs. W. L. Stearns, Miss Nancy Adams and Miss Angie E. Keene and Miss Maria Beebe. Following prayer by Miss Kirk Leavens reports of the recent branch meeting at Windward were given by Miss Nancy Adams and Mrs. W. L. Stearns. Tea was served at the close by Mrs. W. H. Dawley, Mrs. W. L. Stearns and Mrs. H. B. Cary.

THOUSANDS NEEDED FOR THE MERCHANT MARINE

Statement Issued Friday By Local Enrolling Officer.

Frank D. Sevin local enrolling agent for the Merchant Marine issued the following statement on Friday: The government wants at once, of sailors for the Merchant Marine. Having taken over seventy-eight Dutch ships, our shipping board has to find men to man them immediately. The German drive has speeded up things as they have been ordered up before. It means that all of the trained men of the camps have got to be sent to the other side. It is now a matter of ships and men. We must have the men to man the ships, in order to get men and supplies to the other side.

Service in the Merchant Marine is well paid; a man has a comfortable home to sleep at night, good meals three times a day, no marching, and at the same time is doing his bit. All men who serve two years have the privilege of attending the United States Shipping Board Training School for Officers.

Men in this service are exempt from the draft; and I can enroll men who are in the draft, as long as they have not been called for service.

MONTHLY MEETING OF MANUFACTURERS' BUREAU

Local Shippers Urged to Support New Steamship Line.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Manufacturers' Bureau of the Norwich Chamber of Commerce was held Friday evening with Chairman A. M. Vangagen presiding. Matters of importance to the manufacturers and shippers of the city were taken up for discussion. Frederick W. Cary, president of the chamber of commerce, presented a report on the establishing of the Kay steamship line between this city and New York. A resolution was adopted, urging upon all manufacturers and shippers to endorse the line by their signatures to a petition which is to be circulated. The membership committee report was read and several other important matters were taken up for consideration but no definite action was taken at the meeting Friday night.

Winter Pays Another Visit.

April 8, 1863—Winter manifests a disposition to linger in the lap of spring which is somewhat remarkable. The old fellow dies hard. It was supposed that he had given his last kick weeks ago but last Saturday morning he surprised us with another visit. On Tuesday morning the snow began falling at an early hour and continued until noon when it turned to rain and the rain and snow together made everything and everybody look exceedingly blue.

The election in Lisbon on Monday resulted in a tie vote on representatives, a second election was held yesterday with the result that B. F. Hull, democrat, received three more votes than H. L. Reade, the republican candidate.

April 9, 1863—The slips at the Second Congregational church were sold on Wednesday evening the aggregate realized was a trifling short of $5,000, a falling off of over $500 from last year. The slips and chairs in the Central Baptist church sold for between $3,500 and $4,700.

The sale of slips at the Universalist church realized about $1,700. The real estate sales for the month of March totaled nearly $50,000 dollars, which was a little falling off from the previous month.

April 10, 1863—This date being Good Friday there were services in all the churches of the city, both morning and evening. The stores were closed during the day.

The sale of slips in the East Main Street Methodist church amounted to $1,400 an increase of over $700 over last year.

Church Elects New Treasurer.

April 11, 1863—At the meeting of the Second Congregational society last evening Charles Johnson was chosen treasurer in place of Charles Spaulding resigned.

The entire republican ticket in Colchester was elected at the election on Monday. The republicans celebrated their victory with an oyster supper and speeches by the candidates elected. Delegates to the National Union Republican convention to be held at Chicago from the third district are H. H. Starkweather of Norwich, Horace Smith of Colchester and Sabin L. Sayles of Killingly.

MORE HELP NEEDED BY THE RED CROSS

Local Chairman Appeals For Volunteer Workers to Meet Additional Demands.

Additional helpers must at once be secured to meet the increasing demand on the Red Cross, said Joseph H. Seiden, chairman of the Norwich chapter in a statement issued Friday evening. The Red Cross, he said, is the front line in France, emphasized the importance of the war work carried on by the Norwich Red Cross at the headquarters, Franklin square. To meet increasing demands additional helpers must at once be secured, especially for the morning. The attendance in the afternoon and evening is large. For the mornings at least twenty additional helpers are needed.

A room in the Thayer building has been secured and during the coming week the electric cutter, provided last month by generous gifts from friends of the Red Cross, will be installed. It will then be possible to devote Tuesday and Friday morning to the federation of surgical dressings.

It is hoped that the response to this appeal for helpers may be very prompt and generous. Those who are free to undertake this important service are asked to report to Mrs. W. T. Olcott, chairman of the war work committee.

Signed, for the Chapter,
 JOSEPH H. SEIDEN.

LIBERTY BOND COLLECTION IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES

Will Be Taken Up in All Parishes Tomorrow at Request of Bishop Nolan

In announcing diocesan collection for bond-buying tomorrow (Sunday) April 14, Bishop Nolan addressed a letter to the pastors of his diocese in support of the third Liberty loan, which letter was read to the congregations at all the masses last Sunday. In substance the letter said: "As loyal citizens of our country, we owe it to those upon whom rest the great burdens of administration to supply what is aptly termed the sinews of war. However great may be the strength of a nation and abundant its natural resources, both will be held in abeyance unless money is forthcoming to equip our soldiers and maintain them in the conflict. To send them forth improperly armed and meagerly fed would be to expose the flower of our youth, weak and defenseless in the face of the enemy, and invite certain defeat to our armies. According to the latest advice, the American forces are grappling with a powerful foe.

Every congregation in this state is represented in the battle line. As our heroes advance to meet the shock of battle for the defense of our homes and liberties, it would ill become us to hesitate or to count the cost in money while they do not refuse the sacrifice of their lives.

We trust, with God's help, that most of them will return unharmed to their homes, bearing the laurels of victory, but without doubt thousands who escape death will need immediate and skilful attention that can be furnished only in thoroughly equipped hospitals both abroad and at home.

The money derived from this campaign is to be used extensively for the protection and preservation of the lives of our soldiers. We earnestly hope that our people will respond with the cooperation and zeal which has marked the support of the government on former calls, and that they will stand ready for any sacrifice till the purpose of this war is accomplished and the Lord send peace to our beloved nation.

The purchase of these bonds, moreover, is not only a mark of confidence in the government and a practical evidence of our support in the struggle now at its height, but also is a safe and profitable investment to provide against the day of need which may come to individuals or families.

HOW TO GROW TOMATOES

The tomato is one of the most satisfactory of all garden crops and one that is found in practically every vegetable garden. No matter how small the garden space available, it is always advisable to have a few tomato vines.

Tomatoes will grow in almost any good soil, but the soil should not be too high in nitrogenous matter as this will cause the plants to go to vine, rather than to fruit. The plants should be started in the window box or in the hotbed, some six weeks before time to set them in the open. For best results they should be transplanted at least once. It is possible to secure a crop much sooner by carefully growing the plants indoors in pots and transplanting to the open ground as soon as conditions permit.

They should not be set in the open until about two weeks after the last killing frost. If set sooner than this they should in all cases be protected from frost with a muslin cover or with boxes covered with glass or by other means.

The pot-grown plants are especially desirable, as they may be brought to the blooming period by the time it is warm enough to plant them in the garden. If the plants are not to be trained, but allowed to lie on the ground, they should be set about 4 feet apart each way. If trained to single stalk and tied to stakes or trellis, they may be planted in rows 3 feet apart, and 15 inches apart in the row. If to be used for table purposes only, 25 plants under good conditions will supply the average family. If for canning, from 50 to 100 plants will be necessary. One hundred plants should supply sufficient tomatoes for present use, and enough to can at least 100 quarts.

Under favorable conditions, tomatoes will continue to grow and bear for the entire season, and it should not be necessary to set a late crop. U. S. Department of Agriculture.

A million men may be in France in a few months—keep the lines open, and the food moving.
